CERTIFICATION STATEMENT

THE APPLICANT:

1. Certifies that to the best of its knowledge and belief, the information being submitted to CI is true and correct.
2. Certifies that the applicant is in compliance with all laws, regulations, ordinances and orders of public authorities applicable to it.
3. Certifies that the applicant is not in default under the terms and conditions of any grant or loan agreements, leases, or financing agreements with its creditors.
4. Agrees to include in its private placement memorandum or equivalent documents substantially the following statement:

"The approval of the company's application, the listing of the company by Connecticut Innovations, Incorporated ("CI") as qualified to receive cash investments eligible for a Connecticut income tax credit, and/or the use of the phrase "Qualified Connecticut Business" do not constitute the endorsement or recommendation by CI or the State of Connecticut of an investment in the securities of the company. Neither CI nor the State of Connecticut has made or is making any representations or warranty of any kind with respect to the value of the company's securities, the financial condition or future earnings of the company, the management of the company, or the company's business or prospects. In no event shall CI or the State of Connecticut have any responsibility for any investment losses or other damages that may be suffered as a result of an investment in the company.”

5. Acknowledges that designation as a “Qualified Connecticut Business” does not result in any exemption from state and federal securities laws and agrees to comply with all requirements of such laws applicable to applicant and its offer and sale of securities.
6. Understands that CI is a “public agency” for purposes of the Connecticut Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”). Accordingly, upon receipt at the office of CI, any application under the Connecticut Angel Investor Tax Credit Program will be considered a public record or file subject to disclosure under the FOIA. The FOIA includes exemptions for “trade secrets” and “commercial or financial information given in confidence, not required by statute.” In addition, all financial and credit information and all trade secrets contained in an application for financial assistance or obtained by CI concerning any applicant for financial assistance or any project, activity, technology, product or invention is exempt from disclosure under FOIA.

Only the particular information falling within one of these exemptions can be withheld by CI if made the subject of a public records request under FOIA. Therefore, an applicant under the Connecticut Angel Investor Tax Credit Program should specifically identify those particular sentences, paragraphs, pages, sections or exhibits that it claims to be exempt.

Applicants should be aware that (i) CI has no obligation to notify any applicant of any FOIA request received by CI; (ii) CI may disclose materials claimed to be exempt if in its judgment such materials do not appear to fall within a FOIA exemption; (iii) CI may in its discretion notify applicants of FOIA requests and/or of complaints made to the Freedom of Information Commission concerning items for which an exemption has been claimed, but CI has no obligation to initiate, prosecute or defend any legal proceeding or to seek to secure any protective order or other relief to prevent disclosure of any information pursuant to an FOIA request, (iv) the applicant will have the burden of establishing the availability of any FOIA exemption in any such legal proceeding, and (v) in no event shall CI or any of its officers, directors or employees have any liability for disclosure of documents or information in the possession of CI which CI, or such officer, director or employee, in good faith believes to be required pursuant to the FOIA or other requirements of law.

In the event of a public records request for an application under the Connecticut Angel Investor Tax Credit Program, CI may request, and each applicant agrees promptly to provide to CI, a version of such application from which all information for which an FOIA exemption has been claimed has been redacted.

Except for trade secret or other proprietary information identified as such pursuant to the section above dealing with the Freedom of Information Act, CI is not restricted in its right to use or disclose any or all of the information contained in any application and can do so without compensation to the applicant, notwithstanding any language in the application to the contrary.
